Les cartes, planches, tableaux, etc., peuvent être filmés à des taux de réduction différents. Lorsque le document est trop grand pour être reproduit en un seul cliché, il est filmé à partir de l'angle supérieur gauche, de gauche à droite et de haut en bas, en prenant le nombre d'images nécessaire. Les diagrammes suivants illustrent la méthode.

It was the Fourteenth day of April that our Fleet it did set sail,
And bore away to the Eastward with a fair pleasant Gale.
The Major-General had some on Board and Officers all round,
And the very next day the Fleet arriv'd in Martins Vineyard Sound.

[IV]

From thence we stood for Canfo & we join'd the Roston Fleet,
And Anchor'd in the Harbour there, they much rejoic'd to see it.
Our Forces being all well agreed resolv'd to make no stay,
We soon all became under sail & stood for Chipperague-Bay.

[V]

It was the last of April that we did Arrive in the Bay,
With abundance of Prosperity, the whole Army will say.
Our Enemies they march'd down, being in a most dismal heat,
We soon landed part of our men which caus'd them to retreat.

[VI]

St. Georges Colours we did hoist upon the Land so high,
Which caus'd the French Fees to look upon us very shy.
They being so much in surprize & in such a dismal Frigh,
That they never dar'd to sally out to give us a Field Fight.

[VII]

Soon after that then Insign Leeds was sent with Eighteen Men,
And espied the Grand-Battery and boldly March'd in:
(He being the first of our Army that ever march'd therein)
And we hold it to this very day for the Honour of George our King.

[VIII]

And on the Seventh of May, they flew from all parts of the Town,
They fir'd bravely upon us, brave Boys, but did us but little wrong.
From our Battery we did shoot and we drew up our Guns,
And so we paid them the old debt, we sent them two for one.

then they saw they were all surrounded both by Land & Sea

they were a People sore distressed, encompass'd round with grief, then a Flag of truce came out whilst we were incamp at the Flag and desir'd a cessation of Arms until the very next day;

which our Generals did content & return'd the Flag to them, and demanded of them an Answer by the next day at Noon.

[XIV.]

Accordingly the Flag returned by the prefixed Time, with their Proposals they bro't out, that they desired they might have the Plunder all, & be sent home with it; and the City Gates they'd open to us & our Regiments might march out.

which our Generals did consent without the least delay, and so drew off part of their Troop & bravely march'd away,
with beat of Drum & Colours flying, & a very merry train, and so the day was ended in order to the next day.
